notes |

All images are supplied.

Each image is a rollover. I'd like you to match the placement of the card backs as shown above, but you can put the 'over' images wherever you like.

I'd really like you guys to work together and help each other build this page. I'm sure you're a little rusty with this stuff. Just do the best that you can.

The link at the bottom should open up the class website in a new _blank tab.
